Summarise your request for funding in no more than 50 words “The funding is for...”. This will be shared with all participating funders.

50 words

Your community: Tell us about the impact Covid-19 has had on the people you support. At this point, how do you think this might change in the next 3 months?

200 words

Your organisation: Tell us about the impact Covid-19 has had on your organisation. At this point, how do you think this might change in the next 3 months?

200 words

Tell us about what you want to do right now as a result of these changes? What steps have you already taken and what do you want to do differently in the next three months?

200 words

Tell us how much that will cost? Note that funders will try to keep grants as flexible as possible, recognising that the situation is changing very fast.

Item	Cost (number format only)

What extra (non-financial) support might you need to make this happen? E.g. support with adapting your work so you can offer it digitally, workforce planning etc. Funders will do their best to connect you to other organisations facing the same challenges and to free sources of business advice and support.

100 words

Is there any other information you need to tell us? (this can be used for specific information for different programmes as the fund develops)

200 words

Information to upload or attach:

- Your governing document e.g. constitution (if you have one)
- Your most recent annual accounts

Please note, that in order to deploy your grant (if successful), we will need the applicant organisation's bank account details showing organisation name, address, sort code and account number in the form of a recent statement (last 3 months). This should take the form of one of the following:

- Scanned bank statement (if you have access to this)
- Bank statement downloaded from an online account

If you do not have access to the above you will need to determine with the relevant funder a suitable alternative at point of grant offer.

Data Privacy Statement

“London Community Response” is a brand name for an initiative which is supported by a group of funders.

Each of the funders is a controller under data protection law of the personal data provided through the application form and any further personal data collected on applicants and approved grantees. Should you have any questions about how personal data is used by the funders, in the first instance please contact London Funders (www.londonfunders.org.uk).

The group of funders do not intend to share or trade personal data with third parties for commercial purposes and will only process your personal data as set out in their respective privacy notices, if it is required or permitted by law, or with your consent.

How we will use your personal data

The personal data we will collect will principally be the name and contact details of grant applicants. This information will be shared with the group of funding organisations who are supporting the London Community Response collaboration. We will process the personal data you provide for the purposes of:

- Administering your grant application (assessing your application, grant due diligence);
- Activities connected with raising awareness about the London Community Response initiative; and
- Analysis and learning about grant-making to improve our understanding of fundraising (but on an anonymous or pseudonymous basis wherever possible).

If your application is successful, the relevant funder will then use your personal data for processing grant payments, grant variations, grant monitoring and reporting, and at that point, your personal data will be used in accordance with the relevant funder's privacy notice.

We may share your personal data with third parties, including other funders, external consultants and external auditors, police and regulatory bodies for the purpose of determining, preventing or detecting crime; or ensuring that no organisation is receiving duplicate funding; or the validation of contracts; or where this is otherwise required or permitted by law.

We rely on the legitimate interest basis to collect and use personal data about applicants and approved grantees for the purposes of administering the grant application, promotional activities and analysis and learning.

This is to run London Community Response properly and to ensure we continue to improve our grant-making.

You have rights under data protection law to control your personal data. Please see the relevant privacy notice for the respective funder to understand how they use your personal data and your rights.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (www.ico.org.uk) should you have concerns about how your personal data is used but please raise your concern with us first.

For further information about how London Funders uses the personal data relating to your application please see: <https://londonfunders.org.uk/about/privacy-and-cookies-policy>
